Under Act 5 certain criminal records will be able to be sealed as of November 14, 2016, and will only be able to be seen by law enforcement and state licensing agencies. The most common offenses that can be sealed include drug possession, DUI, minor theft, disorderly conduct, and prostitution. Use this chart to see if your record can be sealed.

Can your record be sealed under Act 5?

1. 1st Degree Misdemeanor or a felony offense.
   - Yes
   - No

2. 2nd Degree Misdemeanor
   - Was it for simple assault?
     - Yes
     - No
     - No
     - Yes

3. 3rd Degree Misdemeanor
   - Has it been more than 10 years since you finished your sentence for the offense?
     - Yes
     - No

4. Ungraded Misdemeanor punishable by no more than 2 years in prison
   - Yes
   - No

- No. Unfortunately, at this time, your record can not be sealed. You can apply for a pardon from the Governor.

- Possibly. It is possible that your record can be sealed and CLS may be able to help. Visit us at 1424 Chestnut Street, 9am-12pm, Monday-Friday to learn more.