Importance of Partnerships

- ▶ Meet people where they are comfortable/tap into trust partners have with community
- ▶ Make services easily accessible (zoom/in person)
- ▶ Reach populations who might not proactively contact/know about your organization
- ▶ “Pressure points” in the system
- ▶ Addressing issues like systemic racism (Wisconsin’s incarceration rate for its Black and Native American residents more than 10 times higher than the white imprisonment rate)
- ▶ Good pro bono case
  - ▶ No strict deadlines
  - ▶ “Feel good” case
  - ▶ Non-litigation
- ▶ Involvement of law and paralegal students

8

- ▶ Many pardon applicants are survivors of child abuse/neglect, domestic/sexual violence and/or have experienced poverty, systemic racism, addiction, mental health issues, homophobia, transphobia, human trafficking, etc.
- ▶ Applicants often express shame and embarrassment about their past and it is retraumatizing for them to relive it
- ▶ Important for advocates to have training/background in being trauma informed
